CENSUS FIELD OPENINGS
CENSUS ENUMERATORS
FOR BLOCK CANVASSING

The Bureau of the Census is currently testing for Enumerator positions in the state of Illinois. The work that will be done involves the verification of addresses for Census 2000. The purpose of Block Canvassing is to verify the addresses of all living quarters in selected areas. Block Canvass Enumerators will go block by block to check the locations and addresses of all places where people live or could live. This list will be used later to deliver questionnaires and to make sure we have an interview from every house, apartment, mobile home, trailer, lean-to, houseboat, or other housing unit and each group quarters.

In most of Illinois, the Block Canvass operation will begin in March 1999. For Cook County, Illinois the project will begin in early April. The project will last about six weeks. Requirements include U.S. citizenship and the ability to be contacted by phone. A car and driver's license may be required. There will be full and part-time positions with flexible hours, days and weekends. In addition to an hourly wage, there is a reimbursement of 32.5 cents per mile for the work-related use of your automobile. Crew Leader and some clerical positions will also be available.
